OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

MASSACHUSETTS HALL
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS 02138

March 3, 1987

Dear Mr. Gates:

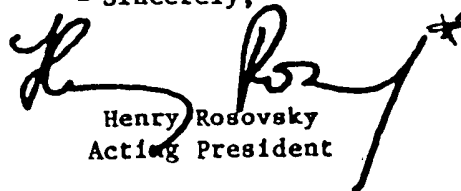

I have discussed with Professors Ernest May and Richard Neustadt their proposal on Intelligence Assessment and Policy, recently submitted to you on behalf of the President and Fellows of Harvard College.

The project is consistent with our guidelines for the conduct of such research.

These include disclosure of CIA sponsorship of the project. We also understand that all of the work involved in the project is of an unclassified nature and that the products of the project will be freely available for scholarly use.

We appreciate the opportunity to conduct such research.

- Sincerely,

Henry Rosovsky
Acting President

Mr. Robert Gates
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
